

SUMMER GIRL'S ATTIRE.

Afternoon Gown—Shirt Waist the Staunch Friend of Women.

QUAINT EFFECTS IN LACES.

The summer girl's outfit must necessarily be chosen with a view to her plans for the summer and the lavishness of her dress allowance; and fortunately for her who must select a moderate outfit never has individuality of taste had such freedom and never were delightful effects within the possibilities, at lower cost.

Of course the afternoon gown which runs the gamut of thin materials from the most expensive laces to the simplest organdies must first be considered, but in apportioning her expenditures for the summer milady should remember that the elaborate garden party style of frock is not, as formerly, the only afternoon gown required. Now that it is so fashionable to live out of doors the greater part of the time, quite a different style of dress is necessary.

Most appropriate for afternoon wear are the so-called tailor-made costumes of light weight cloth, mohair or linen.

Linen is the leader of fabrics, particularly for shirt waists and there is no longer any doubt of the shirt waist holding its own. For many seasons we have heard the prophecy that the separate blouse is doomed, but, as the moralist puts it, "True merit will tell" and the fact that after at least five seasons the separate waist is still with us is surely proof of its desirability.

At the races I saw two models of styles in frocks most in vogue for a fashionable outfit. One which I have depicted for you in my illustration is of dark blue trimmed in a darker shade of fancy braid and is worn with a white linen Forsythe waist, exquisitely hand-embroidered in a delicate, refined design, and which lends distinction to the handsome gown.

The lithe, graceful figure owes not a little of its effect to the new model C. B. a la Sprite corset, designed especially to meet this season's styles, and recommended by all dressmakers for women of fashion as the best suited to the present mode of gowns.

Another was a cream-white eau de crepe, a charming model of the afternoon gown which offers such immense possibilities for the mingling of different kinds of lace in a single costume.

REV. SAM P. JONES

Says Outlook for Crops Are Bad All Over the Southern States.

"Democrats would save time and whisky by not holding any national convention in 1904," said Rev. Sam P. Jones Tuesday to a Nashville Banner reporter, while waiting in the Union Station at Nashville for the train.

"Politics, Roosevelt, Cleveland and everything else dimes into secondary importance, however, and the most serious question which now now confronts the people of the United States is the crop outlook.

"On my tour I have traveled through the West, the Southern, the South and Southern, and never in my experience have I seen such a poor outlook for the agricultural interests of the country at this season of year. The large field swept areas are just desolate; that's all there is to it. The people haven't enough to live on, and starvation times will visit large portions of the country before another harvest comes and enables the farmers and country people to recover to some extent from their losses."

"The wheat crop is way below the average. In parts of Kentucky, Tennessee and Southern Indiana and Illinois the yield will be normal, but the fields which will produce only 30 to 60 per cent, far outweigh the good fields in number. Large numbers of the population in the states where I have been will be in distress all next winter and the actual suffering will not be confined to a few. Corn is backward and looks sickly, and cotton is not thriving any more than corn."

"When I contemplate all I have seen in the different sections, I have a sensation of pity for the stricken communities."

The Man Who Hung the Jury in the Jett Case at Jackson.

Burns Fitzpatrick was the man who hung the jury in the Jett case at Jackson a few weeks ago.

Fitzpatrick, with two brothers, Sevilian and James, are under indictment in the U. S. Court for conspiracy to defraud the government. It developed in a trial before the Commissioner at Presburg that they gave to an ignorant old man by the name of David Cobert a lot of whisky, and afterwards bought it back from him. Then, one of them swore out a warrant for Cobert, and had himself and the other two named as witnesses, their purpose being to get the witness fees, mileage, etc. Cobert was dismissed.

This occurred in 1897. The brothers have not been tried because the prosecuting witness, Cobert, has been spirited away.

Is it any wonder that the jury hung?—Winchester Sun-Sentinel.

BIG BUILDINGS

For Live Stock at the Kentucky State Fair.

Owensboro Making Great Preparations for the Big Fall Attraction.

The preparations now in progress both at the Louisville headquarters and at Owensboro indicate that the State Fair which begins at Owensboro on September 21 will be the biggest event of the kind ever attempted south of the Ohio river.

Aside from the long and splendid list of free amusements, to which has now been added the famous Dr. Carver and his show, and also races, without pool selling, the Fair will be an education to all persons interested in live stock, agriculture, horticulture, mining and household work.

Contracts have just been let for nine cattle barns with a capacity of 300 cattle; five stables with a capacity of 500 horses; two buildings with a capacity of 300 swine; one poultry house with a capacity of 1,500 birds; one mineral exhibit hall, which is a new feature, and one office building. The amphitheatre has a capacity of 10,000 and is one of the largest in the United States.

L. AND N. BREAKS A RECORD.

In Twenty-Four Hours, 133 Cars of Perishable Fruit Are Handled.

The Louisville and Nashville Railroad broke a record in the twenty-four hours that ended at midnight by handling 133 cars of stock—bananas, watermelons and other fruit—on the Bowling Green and Louisville division. All of the 133 cars came into Louisville from the South, and will be distributed from there to all parts of the United States.

The 133 cars were what is called "live" freight, and are considered extra traffic. All of the regular freight, coal, stone and thousands of cars of "dead," or non-perishable, freight was handled as usual. The "live" freight had to be kept moving because of its valuable and perishable nature, and to handle the record-breaking number of cars and also keep the other freight going imposed a severe task on the freight agents and employees.

12 Year Old Whiskey in 12 Hours.

An exchange says a Louisville distillery has adopted a new system by which whiskey is made "from ten to twenty years" in less than twelve hours' time. This is getting things done pretty fine, truly. It is about as hard to find a drink of genuine, good whiskey as it is to find an honest man these days. Back in the good old days they made whiskey to drink, now they make it to sell, or, properly speaking, to kill. Only ten or twelve years ago a fellow could get a fair nip occasionally, which would make him think he owned the earth and the fullness thereof, but to-day—well, a teaspoonful will make a man throw rocks at his great-grandmother. In other words, it used to be a "loving drunk," today it's a "fighting drunk."

Last Tuesday Mr. Williams sent to Glasgow for half a gallon of medicine, which he had to have at once, says the Spottsville Enterprise. It was being brought over on the mail stage, and arrived safely as far as Lucas. There Church Bishop decided it looked well and might be "fire water," so the box was opened and a pint placed between his ribs. The medicine contained poison and a dose was only a teaspoonful. It took the doctors some time to keep Mr. Bishop from dying.

HOW PROHIBITION WORKS

In Trenton, Tenn., a Town of 4,000 inhabitants and the County Seat of Gibson County.

Those prophets of evil, who predicted calamity for the town when the sale of whisky was stopped, are not in evidence these days. The town has not been hurt, but has been benefited. Money that was formerly spent for whisky by those who could ill afford to spend it is now spent for the benefit of wives and children. Men who never came to town on public days and went home sober, now come and return to their families sober and happy. The frequent broils and fights that went to make up "first Monday" are now things of the past. Three months without saloons in Trenton is enough to convince the most skeptical that the open saloon is a curse to any community.—Trenton Herald-Democrat.

The Midsummer Fashions.

Sun-plats are the season's novelty and characterize both walking and trailing skirts.

Many of the smartest afternoon gowns are made of voile. There are voiles in checked, striped, plaided and dotted weaves, and a novelty shows silky white hairs over the surface.

Next to the skirt and coat costume, and every woman considers at least one shirt waist gown of light weight wool or silk a necessary addition to her ordinary street frocks. The smartest of these frocks are made of linens and linen canvas, with braid and buttons for ornamentation.

The long, loose coat has proved itself so desirable a garment that it is included in every well-appointed outfit, being made of thin French cloth, linen, canvas, brilliantine and satin. Coarse linen canvas coats are worn not only with skirts to match but afford the desired protection to thin summer dresses.

There are beautiful stocks of heavy washing materials, with medallions of lace let in, embroidered designs and fancy stitching for ornamentation; others are relieved from plainness by a line of narrow piping in color or about the edge. Pearl buttons or studs are used to fasten some of the daintiest of these. Long scarfs of silk crepe or linen gauze are the prevailing fashion, and their success lies in the manner in which they are tied.

Nothing in dress is of greater importance than the footwear, which must not only be comfortable but fashionable and must accord with the costume and occasion upon which it is worn.—From the Delineator for August.

AIR LINE

Between St. Louis, Nashville and Hopkintonville.

The Press is informed by Illinois Central officials that preliminary work has already been ordered at Cave-in-Rock for the slip for a transfer boat between the Illinois and Kentucky shores of the Ohio river, to be used until the bridge is completed. All of the bridges between Princeton and Hopkintonville are being tested as to their strength for heavy trains on the through Nashville and St. Louis Air Line via Marion and Cave-in-Rock.

The building of the railroad between Marion and the Ohio river to St. Louis has been decided upon absolutely.—The Crittenden Press.

HOPKINS COUNTY REPUBLICANS

Convention Strongly Indorses Judge Pratt and Sends Instructed Delegation.

R. E. GRAHAM DECLINES THE NOMINATION FOR LEGISLATURE.

The Republicans of Hopkins county met in mass convention at court house in Madisonville pursuant to call of State Committee and of County Chairman. It was called to order by J. B. Harvey, Chairman of the County Committee. Temporary organization was effected by electing W. P. Scott Chairman and C. H. Murphy Secretary. Said temporary organization was made permanent. On motion the Chair appointed a Committee on Resolutions, namely: Dr. T. W. Gardiner, Ben T. Robinson, L. A. Teague, William Beard, T. E. Finley, Lawrence Rodgers and C. J. Waddill, which Committee reported the following resolutions:

"We, the Republicans of Hopkins county, in mass convention assembled, renew our loyalty to the Republican party and rejoice in the prosperity of the country under its beneficent rule. We heartily endorse the wise and patriotic administration of President Roosevelt. We feel a deep interest in the welfare of our great state and we desire its redemption and restoration to the high place it rightfully deserves amid the sisterhood of states. We pray for a great harmonious State Convention, and the nomination of worthy candidates upon a broad, clean Republican platform that will appeal to the good judgment of our best citizens.

"We express our high regard for and supreme confidence in our distinguished citizen and beloved brother, Judge Clifton J. Pratt. We know him to be worthy of the high office of Governor and that he will make an ideal candidate for our party. Gifted as a public speaker, a trained lawyer, an able judge, a tried official, a true friend of the people, and of irreproachable character, we commend him to the Republicans of Kentucky for their good of our party and the welfare of our State as our matchless leader who will bring us to victory.

"The delegates selected by this Convention are instructed to vote for and to use all honorable efforts to secure the nomination of Judge Clifton J. Pratt as Republican Candidate for Governor."

The following gentlemen are elected as Delegates to represent Hopkins county in the State Convention at Louisville:

DELEGATES.

W. P. Scott, T. W. Gardiner, J. C. Bacon, R. J. Salmon, Lawrence Rodgers, M. D. Brown, M. J. Clark, T. E. Finley, R. R. Graham, Chas. Ashby, J. G. Foley, Chas. Robinson, Wm. Lynch, John Taylor, Ben T. Robinson, Harvey Jones, Furd Lutz, C. H. Patterson, Dr. T. D. Renfrow, Odie Davis, George C. Atkinson, Lawson Renz, Alex. Mitcheson, Rev. I. N. Selectman, Simon Danley, James Ashby, Bailey Robinson, C. J. Waddill, J. V. McEuen, Wm. Beard, L. A. Teague and all other Republicans and good citizens of Hopkins county who will stand up for old Kentucky by voting the Republican ticket.

Dr. T. W. Gardiner, Chm. Said resolutions were unanimously adopted. On motion of T. E. Finley, seconded by Ben T. Robinson, the Hon. R. R. Graham was unanimously nominated as the Candidate of the Republican party for the office of Representative of Hopkins county in the General Assembly of Kentucky. His name will appear on the official ballots at the regular November election, 1906, in the list of Republican candidates under the regular device of the Republican party. Hon. R. R. Graham being present accepted such nomination. The Convention was large, harmonious and enthusiastic.

Witness our signatures as Chairman and Secretary of the Convention this July 11, 1903.

WILL P. SCOTT, Chm.

C. H. MURPHY, Sec.

RESPECTFULLY DECLINES.

Mr. Graham Will Not Accept the Nomination for Representative—His Reasons Are Personal Ones.

To J. B. Harvey and Members of the Hopkins County Republican Committee:

The Hopkins county convention, held at Madisonville July 11, kindly tendered me the nomination as representative.

sublim candidate for the office of representative, for which I am truly thankful. I then hoped I would be able to accept your nomination, but I find it impossible to do so and feel it my duty to notify you and the Republicans of Hopkins county promptly. My reasons for declining are purely personal, but are imperative. I feel sure that the Republicans will carry Hopkins this year, and I am certain you can easily supply my place with a strong acceptable candidate to lead us to victory. I will do all in my power to aid my party. Expressing my sincere regret that I cannot serve you and hoping for abundant success for our party, I am, Yours truly,

R. E. GRAHAM.

BIG TIME AT DAWSON SPAINS.

County Attorneys Hold Sham Trial, In Which Geo. M. Price Is Defendant in a Breach of Promise Suit.

Dawson, Ky., July 11.—The Kentucky County Attorneys' Association met at the New Century according to program. Among those present were H. F. Reenley, M. B. Shaw, and H. M. Kearby, Hickman; W. T. Davis, and wife, Pineville; W. O. Davis, Versailles; W. P. Kimball, Lexington; Harvey Ham, Stanford; J. Cobb, Richmond; Jacob Corbett and wife, Ballard county; L. A. Forrest, Elizabethtown; C. F. Thomas, Mt. Sterling; T. L. Wallace, Mayfield; La Vega Clements, Owensboro; D. H. Kinchloe, Calhoun; James Garnett, Jr., Columbia; Marl Williams, Hodgenville, and Denny P. Smith, Cadiz.

The court of justice, which was presided over last night by the Hon. Pres. Kimball, in a suit for breach of promise which was brought by Miss Lillian Gary, of Hopkinsville, against George M. Price, of this city. Mr. Price was wholly unaware of the proceedings against him until he was arrested and taken before Judge Kimball, and, being an old bachelor, it was very embarrassing to be brought face to face with so serious a charge before a room full of spectators. Miss Gary carried out her part to perfection, as did all the witnesses. Strong speeches were made by the attorneys on both sides of the case. The damages to Miss Gary's affections, etc., her attorney claimed, were $51,000. The jury returned a verdict of guilty and called on Mr. Price to set 'em up to the cream.

The sham trial was interesting throughout and was held in the spacious dining-room of the New Century by the attorneys for the benefit and amusement of the public. The meeting has been a good one and Dawson did herself royal for the entertainment of the legal lions.

THE MISSES CRENSHAW ENTERTAIN

At Lakeside Park Friday Night in Honor of Their Visitors.

Misses Carrie and Lucile Crenshaw gave a delightful entertainment at Lakeside Park Friday night in honor of their visitors. Misses Eulah and Margaret Richards, of Hopkinsville. After partaking of a bountiful repast the merry-makers passed the time in boating, dancing and other amusements until the cock's shrill alarm warned them it was approaching the hour of midnight and the tired but happy revelers regretfully tore themselves away from Loch Mary's silvery shore. Those present were, Miss Annie Ashby, Miss Martha Parrell, of Lafayette, Ky.; Miss Alice Johnson, of Philadelphia, Miss Laura Norwood, of Lexington, Misses Eula and Margaret Richards, of Hopkinsville, Miss Florence McGregor, of St. Charles, Mrs. W. S. McGary, Miss Anna Rice, Mrs. Dr. Sisk, Mrs. Mike Long, Tom Truburn, B. Southworth, Mr. Randolph, David Burr, Ben Bash, Claude, Mississippi, Pat Mitchell, Dr. A. O. Sisk and W. S. McGary.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Golobick of Colusa, Cal., writes: "For 15 years I endured insupportable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." Just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility. Satisfaction guaranteed by St. Bernard Drug Store.

Health Notice.

TO CITIZENS OF EARLINGTON: At this season of the year it is most important that every citizen see that the greatest care be taken on conditions about the house. Garbage of all kinds should be burned or buried, lime should be freely used and every effort be made to keep the house and garden clean. Decaying vegetables are a source of danger. The gardens should be cleaned and rakings burned. It is hoped all citizens will lend that aid to keep our town healthy.

Who Has Learned?

Will the dear, long-suffering public ever learn wisdom and prudence and become provident? The long periods of zero-suffering to which a large portion of the public is subjected annually should teach a lesson, and the people should rise in their might and change the worn, old adage about hay to read:

Get Coal While.... The Sun Shines!

If those who do not live on a coal foundation had filled their coal bins and coal houses liberally in the warm weather, when coal and hauling is cheap and the roads good, and had not, like the grasshopper,iddled the summer away without providing against the winter's rigors, they would not have had to dance and burn back fences for warmth during the cold snaps and coal shortages of the past few years, which all remember so well.

St. Bernard Coal

mined in Hopkins county, Ky., every day in the year (except Sundays) can be had at any time, but it will get to you more promptly and in better order and at less cost to you, if bought during the summer. 465 Arch Street, Philadelphia

AN ACT OF CRUELTY.

It was a homeless, inoffensive puppy trying to find a friend among a crowd of men, white and colored, who were congregated in front of the St. Bernard store Sunday afternoon. One of the crowd called the puppy to him and while the poor thing was fawning on him and trying to lick his hand he poured a few drops of fluid, commonly known as cayenne, on the animal. The unthinking crowd laughed long and loud while the unoffending brute dragged his suffering body under the Bix office and howled and moaned for half an hour. At times the pain was so great the dog would savagely bite itself and strike its head against the floor of the building. This may be fun but we fail to see how any civilized man can enjoy such fun when it causes a helpless brute to suffer untold agony.

There is nothing cheaper than a smile nor anything of more value, according to the energy used in producing it. A pleasant smile from husband to wife, from parent to child, or from friend to friend, is of greater value than can be expressed. Both the giver and receiver are benefited and blessed thereby. This would indeed be a sad old world were it not for its smiles of approbation. A smile is as easily produced as a frown and a thousand times better. The merchant needs smiles in his business, the smile of a physician is sometimes better than his medicine, and the smile of a true friend is better than gold. The smiles of the people are the sunshine of the world, and when we get so busy gathering gold or fighting for position and power we cannot find time to smile with our friends one of the greatest pleasures of our lives and theirs has ceased.

WOMEN have come to the rescue and are assisting their husbands in the harvest fields of Kansas to prevent the crops from being lost. This may seem like a hardship on the Kansas ladies, but the work is not one bit harder than some of our Kentucky women do every day in the year to earn a scanty support for themselves and trifling husbands.

And by the way, this same husband who loafs around and allows his wife to support him by putting in 15 hours per day over a machine or some other kind of work is the most detestable creature that cumber the earth.

The Chicago Record-Herald says:

The center of population for the United States is located in Indiana, but isn't likely to be there very long if the mobs keep on.

The Hartford Republican says: "Lexington is making preparation to entertain the Kentucky editors on July 22 and 23. We have a pass to and from the meeting and if a few delinquent subscribers will remember us immediately we may be able to go up and soak our system full of bludgrass hospitality and all other good things too numerous to mention. Don't forget us, for it is an unrealized dream for an editor to get all he can eat and look at, once in a lifetime."

The report that Gen. B. Brown, of the Louisville Times, will not be able to attend the Press Association trip has caused the deepest regret among the newspaper fraternity, as he is a general favorite and will be missed as much or more than any other member of the K. P. A.

A MAN can be easily intoxicated with anger as with wine. Both produce temporary insanity and during the paroxysm the party so affected is neither conscious or responsible for his acts and should be avoided as would a madman.

THE 18-year-old daughter of a South Carolina Sheriff chased a mob from the jail with a Winchester in her father's absence. There are other sheriffs, one said to reside in Evansville, Ind., who would do well to have 18-year-old daughters.

Editors Will Have a Good Time at Lexington.

The Kentucky Press Association, which holds its annual session in Lexington on July 22 and 23, will be handsomely entertained by the Chamber of Commerce and local citizens. Among the diversions the editors will have will be a trolley ride to Georgetown; a ride over the city on electric cars; a reception at the State School of Reform; a reception at the State College; a barbecue at the grounds of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association and a visit to the noted stock farms of Fayette county.

The Cork Came Out.

The following joke is going the rounds of the press: Senator Blackburn and Lindsay, of Kentucky were once traveling together through the Alleghany mountains. Blackburn went into the smoking-room and returned in a few minutes looking so much depressed that Lindsay asked: "What's the matter, Joe?" "Why, I've lost the better part of my baggage," said Blackburn in heart-broken tones. "Was it stolen or did you leave it behind?" "Worse than either—the cork came out."

Preacher Loses $63.90.

Owensboro, Ky., July 19.—The Rev. A. M. Lambert, pastor of the Northern Methodist church in Owensboro, lost $63.90 in a mysterious way a few days ago. He is building a mission church, to be known as Mt. Zion Methodist church, two and a half miles from Panther, in this county. He succeeded in collecting the amount named from various people, and laid it down on a log, near the church, on which he was seated after counting it. Soon his attention was called to something else, and he arose and walked away and forgot to take the cash with him. When he returned the log was there, and so was the pocketbook, but no money.

KEEP YOUR BLOOD CLEAN

Let Us Help You Find a Home in the Southwest.

Along the Cotton Belt Route, where land can be bought for $2.50 to $5.00 acre—over-thunder land that affords good range for live stock; rich bottom lands for corn, wheat, oats, cotton; uplands for fruits and vegetables—peaches, pears, plums, strawberries, tomatoes, potatoes, onions, melons—finding good markets at fancy prices in the North on account of excellent qualities and marketing ahead of other sections. Rich and fertile living is cheap—land here at $7 to $8 a thousand, fuel for the cutting, range for the stock nearly year round, garden truck for the table from March to December. The farmer who pays his high rent in the North or dies worth out soil in the East, is missing some of the best things of life by not securing a home in the Southwest. Write for copies of our "Homes in the Southwest," "Glimpses of Southwest Missouri, Arkansas and Northwest Louisiana," "Through Texas with a Camera," "Fortunes in Growing Fruits and Vegetables," "List of Real Estate Agents Along the Cotton Belt," "The Diver's Luck," a fruit and truck growers' journal.

On first and third Tuesdays in March and April, the Cotton Belt Route will sell one-way tickets from St. Louis, Thebes, Cairo and Memphis, to points in Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas, at half the one-way rate, plus $2.00, or round trip tickets at one fare for the round trip, plus $2.00.

MADISONVILLE PEOPLE

Have a Delightful Time at Lakeside Park
Friday Evening.

Loch Mary is a favorite resort, not only with Earlinton people but with our sister town. It is a pleasant drive of four miles and the roads are in excellent condition between the two places. A party of Madisonville young people, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Morton and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Ross drove out to Lakeside Park Friday evening and spent several pleasant hours. An elegant supper was partaken of and greatly enjoyed. The following were of the party:
Misses Pauline O'Neill, Nashville, Tenn.; Cordie Stein, Denver, Colo.; Elizabeth Victory, Earlinton; Geo-na Whittinghill, Nevilleton, Morton,

THE DRAUGHT BLACK-DRAUGHT THE ORIGINAL LIVER MEDICINE

A yellow complexion, distaste, biliousness and a coated tongue are common indications of liver and kidney diseases. Stomach and bowels troubles, severe as they are, give immediate warning by pain, though less painful at the start, are much harder to cure. Theodor's Black-Draught never fails to benefit diseased liver and weakened kidneys. It drives up the torpid liver to throw off the germs of fever and ague. It is a certain preventive of cholera and Bright's disease of the kidneys. With kidneys renewed by Theodor's Black-Draught thousands of persons have dwelt immune in the midst of yellow fever. Many families live in perfect health and have no other doctor than Theodor's Black-Draught. It is always on hand for use in an emergency and saves many expensive calls of a doctor.

Atlanta, Ga., March 10, 1901.
I have used Theodor's Black-Draught for three years and have not had to consult a doctor since I have been taking it.
It is the best medicine for me that I have on the market for liver and kidney troubles and dyspepsia and other complaints. Rev. A. G. LEWIS.

A WEEK OF ANXIETY.

The End of It Found the Pope But the Shadow of a Man.

Rome, July 12.—Saturday brought to a close a full week since Pope Leo was stricken with illness, and it found him still battling against death.
Dr. Lippini remained near the pope throughout the night, but there was little occasion for his services. When Dr. Mazzoni joined him in the sick chamber at 8:30 o'clock Saturday morning they found that their patient had not suffered any serious depression during the night, although the same terrible weakness was still manifest.

An affecting interview has occurred between the pontiff, Cardinal Satolli and three other cardinals representing various parts of the world. The cardinals Satolli and his companions were admitted to the presence of the pope as a special favor, following his earnest entreaty. In the most manner Cardinal Nacchi, speaking for all, told the pontiff of the universal interest taken in his condition, adding: "Prayers are offered up everywhere that the Lord may preserve for the benefit of the church, the precious life of your holiness."

"I thank your eminence," replied the pope. "It will be as God wishes.
We must submit to His holy will." Saying the sufferer pressed the hand of each of the cardinals as they withdrew.
One of the cardinals present at the interview, spoke afterwards of the remarkable changes that had been wrought since he had last seen the pontiff only last Sunday night, when extreme weakness was manifested in his holiness. The cardinal said: "The appearance of the Holy father is intensely painful. He maintains mental acumen, but his brave spirit is terribly broken. This was especially apparent to me, while I am used to see him often. I have observed a great change in his physical condition during the last five days. His words are now uttered with difficulty and he raises his hand only after an effort.
His face is excessively emaciated and his eyes are deeply sunken. His extreme weakness is evident at the first glance; there remains only a shadow of the man."

Cardinal Satolli, in a conversation, said that life was only kept in the tired body of the pontiff by the constant use of powerful stimulants, and other persons equally reliable who saw the pope Sunday and who had seen him on previous days of his illness, agree with Cardinal Satolli in saying that death has made all his ravages save separation of the soul and body. And yet doctors announce to the public that the pope's general condition is satisfactory. An explanation of the apparent contradiction lies in the fact that the doctors expected his holiness to die long before this and now are exercising in their bulletins an excess of caution and a comparative method of expression which is incomprehensible to the lay mind. Moreover, the extraorinary vitality of their patient has so to speak, annihilated every medical theory held by doctors in Italy so that it is hardly surprising that Doctors Rossini, Munzoni and Lapponi content themselves with daily recording the symptoms of progression and retrogression which succeed each other with such baffling irregularity as to forbid the risk of making a definite pronouncement for the public.

The Beaches of Former Ages.

A striking example of the close relation between the fauna and flora of the present sea bed and that of not so very ancient phenomena, is seen in the "raised beaches" which extend for many miles along the California coast near Santa Cruz. Fifty feet or more above the present ocean line of well-consolidated calcareous concretionary rocks protruding, by reason of their superior hardness, from the face of the cliffs, largely composed of and containing shells and other organic remains, identical with those in the present ocean, though by dynamic forces raised 50 feet or more above it, and resting upon the tilted edges of older marine rocks. Such raised beaches occur at many points along the west coast of the Pacific Coast from Alaska to Terra del Fuego, marking a general elevation of the west coast in comparatively recent times. Darwin noticed such raised beaches at an altitude of over 1,000 feet above the present ocean in South America, showing that the South American Continent on its west side had been elevated to that extent in comparatively recent times.—From July Mines and

STATE CONVENTION.

Kentucky Republicans For Teddy Roosevelt in 1904.

STAMPEDE FOR EX-GOV. W. O. BRADLEY.

The season of the Republican State Convention opened in Louisville yesterday evening at the Auditorium. The feature of the afternoon gathering was an endorsement of President Roosevelt's candidacy for 1904 which upset the calculations of several favored leaders and which almost amounted to a stampede to W. O. Bradley, former governor of Kentucky, who is not a candidate. Chairman Barnett announced that the state central committee would waive its right to name the temporary chairman and called for nominations. Maj. W. C.
Owen was named by the Belknap forces, while Chas. Binford received a large part of the Pratt-Wilson strength. The result was a vote of 1,671 to 675 in favor of Owens.

This vote cast in the contest for governor would enable Belknap to win hands down even should he lose the contested Louisville delegation of 240 votes. The following resolution was read by W. O. Bradley without first having obtained permission, but it was unanimously adopted by a rising vote, every delegate springing to his feet:

"Resolved, That we, the Republicans of Kentucky, express our heartfelt approval and admiration of the administration of Theodore Roosevelt and we heartily endorse him for nomination for President in 1904."

Immediately afterwards Mr. Bradley was given a tremendous ovation and had been placed in nomination for Governor would have received an almost unanimous vote, on the supposition that his nomination would wipe out all bitterness caused by the Louisville contest.
The report of the committee on credentials was not ready at the night session and an adjournment was taken until 9 o'clock today. It will probably be at the night session tonight before a vote will be taken in the race for Governor.

BOUND OVER.

Officer E. E. Witherspoon Held For September Term of Court.

WILL PROBABLY BE ALLOWED BAIL

The examining trial of Officer E.
E. Witherspoon for complicity in the killing of Jesse Burton at this place July 4th, was concluded at Madisonville Tuesday evening and resulted in his being bound over to the September term of circuit court.
While the evidence in the case was not very dramatic, yet Witherspoon it was sufficiently strong to hold him over.

There were over 200 State's witnesses summoned in this case but it was considered unnecessary to examine more than half of them.
Judge Givens in rendering his decision announced that Witherspoon would in all probability be allowed to make a $5,000 bond.

FORCE OF HABIT IN A COW.

Wades Though a Flood of Water to Get a Drink.

The force of habit was forcibly illustrated by an incident last week at the pumping station of the waterworks at Enid, says the Enid (Okla.) Eagle. A tank stand just outside the building is kept full of water for the accommodation of passers-by and neighborhood stock. A cow accustomed to drink at this tank came for her morning drink. The valley was covered with water to within three inches of the top of the tank, but the cow went over the wall of water to the tank. Twice she stuck in the mud and appeared to be in danger of drowning, but by perseverance she finally reached the objective point. After drinking long and copiously, she turned about and slowly made her way to land, apparently satisfied that she had done the only available thing to find water.
